

18TH COLLOQUIUM OF THE
NORTH AMERICAN CATALAN SOCIETY

UNIVERSITY OF MASSACHUSETTS AMHERST

April 15–17, 2022

PROGRAM

Founded in 1978, the North American Catalan Society (NACS) is a professional association of scholars, students, and people with a general interest in any aspect of Catalan culture (literature, linguistics, film, visual and performing arts, history, and philosophy, among other disciplines). The North American Catalan Society is committed to advancing the study of Catalan language and culture in the North American academy. It seeks to foster greater visibility for, and dissemination of, scholarship in the field of Catalan Studies. It serves as a central point of reference and a public voice for a network of scholars in this field. To this end, NACS holds biennial colloquia, occasional smaller symposia, and publishes Catalan Review: International Journal of Catalan Culture.
